> The Coming Mitchell-Slade Prize Fight-Base Ball Notes.

The Union Pacific boys scored a splendid victory in Chicago Saturday, where they met and routed the Unions on their own grounds. The Unions are a professional nine, owning regular grounds, and are said to be second only to the league nine in that city.

The batting of the Omaha nine was every time. McKelvey and Baker were the batters, and the score explains their work. Chicago made for seven hits, but

The game opened by McKelvy making a base hit. Whitney followed with anthe birds, snakes and monkeys, were "not other, and Foley brought both home with a patching to the iron jawed man. The show will return to Omaha during state fair week. eighth Sneed made three bases and Bandle made a hit and was brought home by McKelvey's hit to the left. Foley made two double-baggers, and Sneed two three baggers. Foley's work at third was bril-E. Smith, an Eighteenth street boarding liant, as was Rockwell's at first. Baker caught splendidly. NARROW ESCAPE A Drunken Man Falls Under the Dummy Train.

A drunken man at the U. P. depot Saturday had an experience which was a hair lifter for the spectators.

The 40-cent dummy train was just pulling out for the Bluffs when he came along and had an idea that he could board it. He made a play at one of the platform rails but missed it and as the car passed by staggered and fell on the track square under the coach. The engineer was fortunately on the watch and saw the man fall. He "threw her over" in an instant and stopped the train in less than half a car length. The drunken man was thus saved from being hashed up into mince meat, and he owes his life the watchfulness and prompt action of the man at the throttle.
